

THE POWER OF DIFFERENCE CERTIFICATION (PDC)

COLOR/LEVEL	LEARNING OUTCOMES
Red Belt Level 1: My Identity	1. Articulate the ways you identify, how these came to be, how much they matter to you, and why.
	2. Describe the "intersectionality" of your identities and the most significant ways intersectionality relates to how you identify.
	3. Identify your personality type (Meyers/Briggs) and intelligences (Gardener).
	4. Clarify and summarize your history, significant events, trauma (the ACE--Adverse Childhood Experiences), and generational/systemic trauma and how these impact your identity.
	5. Identify your/others cultural communication styles and values.
	6. Describe the concept of fragility regarding differences and the places you experience it.
	7. Identify your areas of marginalization and privilege and their impact for you.
	8. Identify your vision for your life's purpose and how this connects with others.
Orange Belt Level 2: The Power of Difference Model (PDM)	1. Identify and describe the Power of Difference Model's three primary patterns in-depth.
	2. Take the PDA, and Articulate the personal significance of your Power of Difference Assessment (PDA) results (including connections to your history, your assets, limitations, learning edges, and compelling areas.
	3. Apply the PDM internally--articulating why leveraging/integrating the 3 patterns matters to you.
	4. Apply the PDM to power systems--explaining how the 3 patterns produce and reproduce power dynamics in groups/organizations/the world--with examples.
Yellow Belt Level 3: Internal Support Tools	1. Describe and demonstrate how grief/shame are foundational tool in Power of Difference work.
	2. Describe and demonstrate the use of Byron Katie's process related to blame, shame, guilt, and fear and Power of Difference work.
	3. Summarize the concept of micro-aggressions and identify common example samples.
	4. Demonstrate the use of Voice Dialogue and the Focus Wheel and application to Power of Difference work.
	5. Explain and effectively use the analogies of the "The 5 levels", "The Iceberg", and "Lenses".
	6. Demonstrate the use of the Dialogue Model, Constructivist Listening, Active Listening, and Non-Violent Communication ("de-colonized").
Green Belt Level 4: Across Religion, Class, Disability, and Gender	1. Describe others' experience/stories related to these differences with accuracy and empathy.
	2. Describe how you impact others across these differences and what you'd like to change.
	3. Synthesize your learning by creating and problem-solving various scenarios.
	4. Synthesis and create interventions at all levels (with a partner) relevant to your field.
	5. Identify your learning edges related to the differences covered here/create a plan for supporting your learning in an ongoing way.
Blue Belt Level 5: Across Race, Gender and Sexual Orientation	1. Describe others' experience/stories related to these differences with accuracy and empathy.
	2. Describe how you impact others across these differences and what you'd like to change.
	3. Synthesize your learning by creating and problem-solving various scenarios.
	4. Synthesis and create interventions at all levels (with a partner) relevant to your field.
	5. Identify your learning edges related to the differences covered here/create a plan for supporting your learning in an ongoing way.
Purple Belt Level 6: Advanced Communication Tools and Practice	1. Demonstrate advanced cross-cultural communication skills and code-switching.
	2. Learn, practice and demonstrate the use the Solidarity Protocols.
	3. Work through scenarios with cohort members to effectively generate solutions.
	4. Demonstrate the leveraging of all three primary patterns in group interactions/development.
	5. Demonstrate the leveraging of all three primary patterns in group interactions/development.
Black Belt, Level 7: Synthesis, Creation, Application, and Embodiment	1. Create, plan, and implement a longer-term project directly impacting your work, organization, or community (6 months or more).
	2. Work with The Sum to create a customized evaluation of outcomes and level readiness.

*Contact info@thesum.org for more information.